

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives truly value the contributions that farm families make to the diversity of the Show-Me State economy and their invaluable production of food resources which allow this state to compete successfully in a worldwide market; and

Whereas, universally hailed for the efficiency of their operations, Missouri farmers grow and raise a wide variety of plant and animal products which are recognized for high standards of quality and consistency; and

Whereas, true stewards of the environment, Missouri family farmers are keenly aware of the need to control all types of pollution sources, eliminate soil erosion, and reduce the impact their endeavors have on the natural ecology surrounding their fields and pastures in order to use the land, but not abuse it, as a living and fertile legacy for future generations; and

Whereas, in admiration of the strategic role that farmers fulfill in Shelby County and the surrounding environs, the Shelbina Chamber of Commerce held a recognition ceremony on September 11, 2004, as part of the Farmers Day Parade; and

Whereas, one of the recipients of well-deserved praise was Paul Wilson who has admirably involved himself in farming activities since 1964; and

Whereas, Paul Wilson believes that the farm is an excellent place to raise a family and to teach children to accept responsibility and maintain a good work ethic; and

Whereas, Paul Wilson has been blessed with the love and support of a wonderful family whose members include his wife, Louise Wilson; his children, Diana Holland of Ashland, Robert Wilson and his wife, Kristin, of Centralia, and Michael Wilson of Columbia; and his grandchildren, Brandy and Dustin Latchford, Katie and David Holland, and Danner and Bailey Wilson:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the impressive career accomplishments of Paul Wilson and to convey to him this legislative body's sincerest best wishes for continued success in his farming operations; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for esteemed Shelby County farmer Paul Wilson.
